GOSSAMER WATER-PROOF CAPE.
THE MANUFACTURERS claim for the above new style of cape the following:
That they are perfectly water-proof.
That, if worn in the rain twenty four hours, they will not absorb any moisture, while the old style will nearly double its weight, and not keep the wearer dry, either.
That, when rolled-up, they are only seven inches long, and three inches in diameter, and can be carried in the pocket, while the old style is as large and cumbersome as a woolen shawl.
That, being so light-weight, and having no warmth, they are welcomed by all ladies for warm-weather use, or to throw over a winter cloak in cold weather.
That they are not affected by either cold or heat, neither will they become soft and useless with warm damp weather.
That all who have used the Gossamer Capes have expressed themselves perfectly satisfied with them.
That a lady, who has a Gossamer in her pocket, can leave the troublesome umbrella at home, and if the rain comes before she reaches shelter, with the Cape thrown over her, and the Hood over the bonnet, she is far better protected than she could be with the umbrella.
For sale at manufacturers' prices.

TEMPORARY DEATH.

ORIENTAL LEGERDEMAIN TRICK, THE ART OF FEIGNING DEATH FOR SEVERAL WEEKS AND BEING BURIED ALIVE WITHOUT FATAL RESULTS.

According to travelers' stories the best of all evidence, as everybody knows, there used to be in India a school of vagabonds who got their living by dying. For a very modest sum they would emulate the frogs which are periodically discovered alive in solid rock,—or in tree trunks, overlaid by innumerable rings of annual growth—and retire for a specified period from the cares of this life. They professed to have such control over their vital processes as to be able to die at will, and would allow themselves to be sealed up in coffins or tied up in blankets, and buried underground for a week or a month, or more.

A very circumstantial account of such an operation was given by Sir Claude Wade. When he was at the court of Runjeet Singh, in 1837, a fakir was thus buried for six weeks, a company of soldiers guarding the place of his interment to prevent untimely resurrection. At the end of the six weeks the seals were found intact; and on removing the lid of the box which served as a coffin, the white linen bag in which the fakir had been placed was found to be mildewed. When the bag was opened, the temporarily dead man's arms and legs were found to be shriveled and stiff; and his head reclined, corpse-like, on his shoulder. To all appearance he was dead as an Egyptian mummy, no pulsation or other evidence of life being discoverable. He was then turned over to the manipulations of his servant, who made warm applications of various kinds, whereupon the arms and legs gradually returned to their normal state. He then removed the wax and cotton with which the fakir's nostrils and ears had been closed, and after half an hour the devotee was able to speak. All of which Sir Claude vouches for as an eye witness, with an air of truthfulness rivaling that of Abott's clever story of the man with the broken ear.

This art of dying at will and coming to life again appears not to be monopolized by the Hindoos. At least one Englishman in modern times, if human testimony is worth anything, has attained it. His name was Townsend, Colonel Townsend of the British army in India. This man could go into a death-like trance at will, so skillfully counterfeiting real death that the most critical observers were deceived. On one occasion the experiment was made in the presence of Dr. Cheyne, who reports upon the case, Dr. Baynard and a Mr. Skrine. All three felt his pulse; it was distinct, though small and thready; and his heart had its usual beating. He then composed himself on his back and lay motionless for some time. Gradually all signs of life disappeared, till there was no pulse, no beating of the heart, and a mirror held before his mouth gave no indication of breath.

The witness discussed this strange appearance for a long time, finally concluding that he had carried the experiment too far and was really dead. As they were about to leave him a slight motion of his body was observed and a beating of the heart. In a little while he began to breathe, and gradually life was fully restored.

THE DAY.

More April storms have been called to mind. The Taunton Gazette says that on the 17th of April 1821 there was a snow storm which obstructed the roads so that a quorum of the legislature were unable to meet. The storm of April 1811 we have already mentioned. In "Hawthorne's American Notes," page 191, may be found the following item: "West Newton, April 13, 1852--One of the severest snow storms of the Winter." Another severe storm occurred in April 1851. A correspondent of the Providence Journal states that heavy snow storms occurred in April 1803 and 1818.

The Boston Transcript has been remarkably bereaved lately. Within a few months the senior proprietor and his wife, the junior proprietor and the editor who for over twenty years had conducted the paper to the satisfaction of an ever increasing list of subscribers, have all been taken away. The Transcript is so admirable a paper, so candid, so temperate, so pure, that its readers cannot help feeling a certain affection for it that few of its rivals arouse, and its subscribers must feel a sort of personal loss in the repeated deaths, though the paper itself shows no signs of deterioration. It has an individuality aside from that of publishers or editor.

It appears from custom house returns that the amount paid by this nation for foreign goods for the year ending June 30 1871, duties included, amounted to nearly one half of the national debt. Imported hats, bonnets and hoods cost one and a half millions, while three and a third millions went for feathers and artificial flowers, and six and a half million dollars for ribbons. These sums do not include the duties. If the ladies are twitted for spending so much on mere ornamentation they can retaliate by showing that over thirty-one million dollars, besides duties, were paid for imported wines, liquors and tobaccos. Imported penknives amounted to a million and a half, gloves, mits and hosiery, over twelve millions, silks, nearly forty millions, woolens, over thirty-five millions, carpets, over six millions, corsets, a million and a quarter, precious stones, nearly four millions, and cotton piece goods, duties included, eleven and one third millions.

It has become almost constitutional with some of the Providence papers to speak of "New York" when they mean "Newport," as, for instance, within a week or two, the Bulletin made Gen. Burdick a resident of Gotham, and a presumptive rival of Mayor Wickham, by this mendacity of the types, But we regret to see that the same error has begun to infect Boston newspaper offices, and we wish to nip it in the bud, before the evil has become epidemic. New York and Newport are interchangeable as residences, but they are different localities, containing about an equal number of good and respectable people, but differing largely in respect to total population and average character. The tendency of this insidious typographical error is to rob New York of its reputation as a great commercial metropolis, and Newport of its well established character as a place where immaculate purity and bucolic simplicity do all the reveling that is done.

This Postmaster General that we now have seems to be a sort of civil service reform in himself. Postmaster Bard of Atlanta, Ga, was recently dismissed. He immediately interviewed the Postmaster General. In reply to the query of Mr. Bard as to the cause of his removal, Mr. Jewell said: "Well, that's a pointed question, and I will give you a straightforward answer. You were removed because you were altogether 'too unanimous;' you talk too much, write too much, and slash around generally too much for the good of the service." "Well, governor," said Mr. Bard, "is there any hope of a reconsideration of my case?" "None in the world, so far as I am concerned," was the Postmaster General's reply. The idea that a postmaster or marshal, or other federal official must attend to the public business instead of the interests of the party from whom his bread and cheese are is a novelty in our civil service, and it is to be hoped that Jewell will remain in office long enough to produce some good effects.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—Early this morning there was a heavy fall of rain.

—Councilman Underwood is very sick at his residence.

—There was no business at the justice court this morning.

—George H. Norman declines to be alternate commissioner to the Philadelphia centennial.

—The Rev. E. H. Kettell has accepted the call to the rectorship of Zion church, and will enter upon his duties early in May.

—Mrs. Paran Stevens of New York, one of our Summer residents, and Dr. H. G. Spaulding of Boston are at the Aquidneck House.

—This is the last day of grace for the payment of registry taxes by persons who wish to vote at city election. Walk right up to the captain's office and settle.

—Hugo Fritsch, acting Austrian consul general at New York, who occupied J. W. Field's villa last Summer, is now at the Aquidneck House. It is understood that he will rent a cottage here for the coming Summer.

—Col. Julius Sayer and staff have been invited by the Providence Light Infantry Veteran Association to accompany them to the Lexington-Concord centennial celebration next Monday.

—A chapel is to be built at Conanicut Park this Summer. It will be a neat, pretty structure—something after the plan of Kay chapel, in this city. Three new houses by Providence parties are also to be put up at once.

—Two young men named Fish and Sisson, belonging in Middletown or Portsmouth, while intoxicated created considerable excitement in town yesterday by their reckless driving. An unsuccessful attempt was made to arrest them.

—The Ancient Order of Hibernians have elected the following officers for the ensuing year:—S. M. Horgan, president, Martin Byrns, vice president, C. J. Regan, Secretary, J. J. Donohue, Assistant Secretary, L. Houlehan, Treasurer, W. P. Sullivan, company delegate.

—A young man employed at Gould's tailor establishment, who gets drunk only once a year, had his annual spree yesterday afternoon, and before he could be taken to the station house he rolled a policeman and one of his employers in the mud as a mark of his esteem and an evidence of his profound drunkenness.

—The Cliff Cottage Association are making arrangements by which to provide for their guests the coming season in the most satisfactory manner. These cottages have always been occupied by the very best families in the country, and we are glad to know that they are to be kept, still, at the head of American Summer resorts.

—Seven miles eastsoutheast of Point Judith yesterday the fishing schooner H. M. Morris of this port picked up a large buoy and towed it here, a distance of twenty miles, with much difficulty. The buoy belonged to the Brenton reef lightship, and was used to designate her moorings. Collector Macy will have it promptly replaced, and will see that the finders are rewarded for their trouble.

We are unable to say whether the attainment of the twenty first birthday by a male citizen of Middletown is an event of rare occurrence, or not, but the arrival of Archibald Thompson of that town at manhood's estate required the presence of a number of Newport people and Swan's orchestra last night in addition to which the Middletown cornet band, Prof. Smith, leader, attended and furnished music. Dancing, games and refreshments occupied the fleeting hours.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

Wednesday next is the day appointed for the municipal election. In the first ward politics are very much mixed and it is proposed to hold a citizens' caucus to straighten them out. H. Augustus Kaull, the present incumbent, Ernest Goffe and William S. Bachellor are all named for alderman. Mr. Carr, we understand, does not care to return to the council. T. D. Stoddard, now in the council, John C. Stoddard and James L. Weaver, are all named for the two seats in the lower branch.

In the second ward Alderman Job T. Langley is a candidate for re-election. Capt. George H. Kelly has been nominated against him by the Prohibitionists. Councilman Hazard is ineligible by reason of removal. Henry Bull, Jr., now in the council, Thomas Coggeshall and Smith Bosworth are all named for the two seats in the common council. As we understand a proclamation issued by President Grant a year and a half or two years ago a federal office holder can not take any state or municipal office, except in a school board, or something of that kind, and Mr. Coggeshall would not be likely to resign the postoffice for a seat in the common council. The Prohibitionists at the suggestion of a D—— B—— have nominated George H. Tabor and Thomas P. Peckham for the two councilships. They are good men—much better than the manner of their nomination.

In the third ward there seems to be little opposition to Alderman Brown and Councilmen Franklin and Young. The Prohibitionists have nominated for alderman, John E. Seabury, and for councilmen, T. J. Burdick and J. W. Horton.

In the fourth ward Alderman Henry D. Debois is a candidate for re-election and Benjamin Bateman is a candidate in opposition. For first councilmen there is no opposition to G. B. Reynolds, the present incumbent. For second councilman Augustus P. Sherman and John H. Green are named.

In the fifth ward there is no particular opposition to Alderman Weaver and Councilmen Cranston and Titus, though the Prohibitionists have nominated Clarke H. Burdick for alderman.

THE HYERS SISTERS.

The concert at the Opera House last evening was one of the best we have had in our city this season. The troupe appears to great advantage in every respect. They are thoroughly educated musicians and sing the best music in an artistic style. They also sing more or less of the plantation melodies in which they far excel the Hamptons or any other troupe we have heard. By invitation the company visited the Rogers High School today and sang some of their songs to the great pleasure of all present. They appear at the Opera House again this evening.

A good judge of music has sent us the following:—

A quartette of four fine voices, singing in perfect harmony and with uncommon taste, is not a pleasure frequently enjoyed in Newport. Yet this, and not less than this, is what the "Hyers Sisters" have to offer. The modesty and propriety of their bearing is also an agreeable relief from the airs and affectations of so many fashionable singers. Their songs were repeatedly encored, last night, and I think that all who heard them once would wish to hear them again.

T. W. H.

We append the following complimentary notices from leading papers:—

Verily, in the Hyers Sisters, the musical world has something in which to take pride. —[Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

New Haven has rarely heard such extraordinary artists, or reached so much benefit from their concerts.—[New Haven Union.

We publish in today's issue a card from a committee of Chicago musicians, declaring that at the concert last evening Miss Hyers sang G above the staff, a note touched by no other singer since Jenny Lind.—[Chicago Tribune.

Miss Anna Hyers possesses a flexible voice of great compass, clear and steady in the higher notes. Miss Emma, the contralto, has a voice of great power and depth, qualities which, in impassioned strains, give it a richness not often heard in chamber concerts.—[New York Evening Post.

The unexampled enthusiasm with which the singing of the Hyers Sisters and California Vocalists, was received at Lothian's last Saturday night concert, will insure one of the largest audiences of the year next Saturday evening, when these excellent vocalists and the grand orchestra give the sixth concert in the series. The Boston Theatre will be none too large for the numbers who can appreciate the camp meeting and jubilee refrains of these clever vocalists. —[Boston Advertiser, Dec. 24th.

The Hyers Sisters and Troupe, the California Vocalists, who were so well received at the last entertainments, will again appear. The troupe is especially successful in the rendition of those sweet, harmonious, but yet quaint and wild melodies peculiar to the devotees of their race, and known as camp-meeting songs, which they give with much more finish, and less of that harshness and almost uncouthness of the various bands of colored singers who have visited our city. The Hyers Sisters, the female members of the quartette, are not unknown here, and have received the highest commendations wherever they have appeared. Their naturally fine abilities have been greatly improved by culture, which is evinced in their singing. The instrumental portion of the entertainment is furnished by a trained orchestra of forty musicians, and the programme combines a pleasing variety.—[Boston Evening Transcript.

PROVIDENCE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE.

Correspondence of the Daily News.

NEW BEDFORD, April 15.

The Rev. John Lovejoy who was to have preached the semi-centennial sermon on Wednesday evening having been detained by sickness, a temperance meeting was improvised for that evening addressed by the Rev. A. J. Church of Providence and the Rev. B. M. Hatfield D. D., of Philadelphia. Probably no abler and more powerful temperance address has for years been delivered in New Bedford than that of Dr. Hatfield last evening. He dwelt especially on the fact that the great agencies to be used in temperance reform were moral agencies, and that Christian men were to work through the church of Christ—to work with faith and prayer.

Conference opened at the usual hour Thursday morning, being preceded by a prayer meeting of unusual interest.

The Rev. Mr. Alexander of the Nebraska conference was introduced and addressed the conference making, an appeal for the families of ministers and others in Nebraska who had suffered from the grasshopper scourge. The conference ordered a collection which was taken, amounting to $140, and recommended that the different churches take a collection for the same purpose early in May.

The candidates for admission into full connection, viz: J. H. Allen, J. H. Humphrey, F. D. Goodrich, A. E. Hall, S. H. Fay, B. P. Raymond, G. W. Hunt, W. J. Yates, D. Kirkley, and W. L. Phillips were called to the altar, when the usual disciplinary questions were put by the bishop, after which they were addressed by him concerning their duties and privileges. The address of Bishop Janes was one of marked ability and power and was listened to by the large audience with close interest and attention.

The remainder of the morning session was consumed in listening to the reports of the examining committees and passing the characters of the younger members of the conference.

The class addressed by the bishop were all admitted into the conference in full connection and elected to deacons' orders.

The anniversary of the Teachers' Aid Society was held in the afternoon and effectively addressed by Revs. Messrs. Horrson, Martin and James.

The claims of the superannuated preachers, their widows and orphans, were urged eloquently and it is to be hoped that larger collections for this cause may be taken another year.

Thursday evening the anniversary services of the Freedmen's Aid Society, were held, the church being crowded to its utmost capacity. Dr. Rust, secretary of the society, gave an able address in his inimitable style calling forth frequent applause after which he was followed by Dr. Hatfield who spoke for over an hour of the urgent demand made upon not only all Christians but on all lovers of the country or the cause. The occasion proved a most interesting one and its influence will doubtless be felt all through the coming conference year.

THE COMING SEASON.

CONANICUT PARK.

The city of Newport has long been regarded as the most attractive, as well as the most aristocratic of American watering places. The newer portions of the town constitute, in fact almost a city of palatial homes. The Summer residents own or hire villas of magnificent proportions, which with their extended grounds and parks are kept in the best possible style, and often at enormous expense. To a man of large wealth and inclined to a liberal use of his money, there is no place in the world so attractive as this, and it is not strange that so many of the best families make it the place of their Summer retreat. But Newport is known as and is as famous for its costliness as for its charms. And yet very much that is said concerning the cost of living at Newport, and the grasping demands of those who cater to the public wants is altogether unfounded. Its costliness is simply proportionate to the demands of those who mingle in its society. When people require everything that is to be had in both home and foreign markets, they must not expect a bill of limited proportions. Here the calls are for the largest outlays. Fashion requires a cottage or villa fitted and furnished in the best style, and such is not to be had for a song. And fashion is too domineering to allow any one to move within her magic circles at Newport who can not, or will not indulge in these princely outlays. Persons who do not wish to do this have accordingly learned to shun this island city and seek recreation elsewhere.

But there are multitudes who desire the advantages of this peculiar climate, this balmy sea air, to be enjoyed only on this section of the New England coast, who cannot afford

TO LIVE IN A PALACE.

The merchant, or professional man needs rest as much as the millionaire, and he wants the best advantages of sea shore and of good society. Many of these do not care to be driven to points where they are exposed to the easterly winds of the Massachusetts coast, nor such places as the Vineyard, where surging crowds of transient visitors destroy the rest and quiet sought and so much desired. What, in short is needed is, therefore, with less pretensions, less display, less demands on the purse, but with equal natural attractions, equally good air, and equal opportunities for reasonable enjoyment of every kind. Such a place has at last been opened to the public, and that too as a suburb of the city itself. It is known as

A NEW NEWPORT,

and is located on the island that lies at the mouth of Narragansett Bay, and making the western limit of the beautiful Newport harbor. Conanicut Park embraces the northerly end of Conanicut Island, extending from shore to shore, and offering unusual attractions. It was selected in preference to other parts of the island, in part, because of the convenience of access, as the Newport and Providence steamers touch here on all their trips. But this was not the only reason. The land rises gradually from the water, is high and dry, and the marine view is one of the very best. The opportunities for are superior to those offered at any other point, and good boats and boatmen will be at the service of guests at all times.

THE WATER VIEW

is all that can be desired. The bay is here at its broadest width, a sort of inland sea, and yet so near the ocean as to be swept by the cooling and invigorating breezes, so desirable and so enjoyable in midsummer. The eye can never weary with the prospect. It enjoys not simply a marine view, but looks across the water, to the regions beyond. Such places as Wickford, East Greenwich, Warren, Bristol, Newport and Portsmouth are in full view, and not less than twelve townships that fringe the bay come within range.

THE PARK

has been laid out in small lots, and they are sold at a very low price,—so low indeed that a man of small means can easily provide as extensive grounds as he may desire. For from $150 to $300 a lot can be secured that in Newport would be worth from five to ten thousand dollars, though possessed of no superior natural advantages. On these can be built

QUIET SUMMER HOMES.

Unlike most of the shore resorts in the Narragansett Bay Conanicut Park is not devoted to excursions and clambakes. It is designed for quiet homes, where families may spend a few weeks or months undisturbed by the throngs that crowd the resorts which spread their mammoth tables and offer "shore dinners" to the multitudes. No other place on the bay is conducted on this principle. It is well known that at some points the crowd of roughs that go out of the large cities, especially on Sundays, is such as to make it unsafe for families to be left alone. From everything of this kind Conanicut Park is fully protected.

RESTRICTIONS.

Every lot is sold with a clause in the deed the compliance with which is a part of the consideration, that no spirituous liquors shall be made or sold thereon. All gambling is prohibited, and whatever, in this direction, is necessary for the protection of the community is fully provided for.

THE HOTEL

is not large but can accommodate about fifty persons. It is well kept, and at reasonable rates for transient or weekly boarders. Other hotels are not contemplated even in the future as the Park is designed for private residences rather than for public houses and restaurants. This is a feature worthy of consideration on the part of those who desire rest and comparative quiet rather than the whirl of excitement and most exacting toil connected with some of the more pretentious localities.

AMUSEMENTS,

however, are not wanting. Horses and carriages are at hand, shore drives, boating, bathing, fishing, bowling, and the like fill up the hours.

A VISIT TO NEWPORT

is also always in order, for be it remembered that it requires only twenty five minutes time, to enable residents of the Park to join the throng in that more aristocratic city. Though living out of Newport, and escaping its high prices and costliness in style of living, the place is so easily reached that its peculiar advantages are readily secured. A pleasant sail also takes one to Rocky Point or Providence. Eight times a day the fine steamers stop at the wharf landing and receive passengers for these points.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE.

It is now two years since the work of improvement was begun at the Park. Already quite a village has been created, and more than five hundred house lots have been sold. There is a hotel, depot, store, livery stable, ice house, bowling alley, and a goodly number of cottages, with numerous others in immediate prospect. Good roads have been built, an artificial pond created, trees planted, and other improvements made such as the circumstance seemed to demand.

HOW TO GET THERE.

The large and commodious steamers of the American Steamboat Company leave Providence several times a day, and it requires an hour and a half down the beautiful Narragansett Bay, one of the most on-enjoyable sails to be had. Persons from Providence, Worcester, Springfield, Boston and all intermediate points will go by this line. Such as come from Hartford, New York and the regions beyond will take the shore line to Wickford where a steamer connects with Newport, passing the Park on the way; or parties from New York by taking the Sound steamers, connect with the boat at Newport for the Park with but slight detention. As will be seen the place is easily accessable from all points and by the most convenient and comfortable routes.

THE COTTAGES.

Among those who have purchased lots, quite a number of whom have already built cottages at the Park are Hon. Henry Lippitt, the well known manufacturer, Rev. H. C. Graves formerly of Providence but now of Fall River, D. W. Hoyt of the Providence High School, John Kendrick, John P. Mumford, C. G. Dodge, Mrs. B. J. Luther, J. B. Kilton, Perez Mason, Levi W. Russell, Geo. W. R. Matterson, A. J. Manchester, Hon. S. A. Irons, W. H. Seamans, O. W. Hopkins, Emory Lyon, James C. Goffe, and more than forty others from Providence; Rev. Dr. Payne of Cincinnatti, Capt. J. Williams of Brooklyn; L. Whitney of Watertown; M. G. Drew of Boston; Judge W. S. Shurtleff of Springfield, Mass.; John Stetson, J. S. Wardan, J McCurdy, M. Murphy, Aug. W. Simons, A. J. Dexter of New York; A. A. Geddes of Cambridge, Mass., and many others in different towns and cities.

The above list, of course, constitutes but a small part of those who have purchased at the Park. The whole of has also been clothed with new life, since the opening of this new watering place. The farms adjoining the Park have been purchased and are now held for improvements by such men as Philip Caswell Jr., formerly of the firm of Caswell, Hazard & Co., of New York, Mr. Darling of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, and Hon. Mr. Campbell of New York Mills. The old island town that has been cut off from the rest of mankind so many years, has been started into newness of life. The line of sail boats has given way to the steam ferry, connecting it with Newport while the magnificent steamers from Providence stop in both summer and winter on all their trips. Property is advancing and there is good prospect that what is now offered so cheaply in the market for the sake of a beginning, will soon command prices in keeping with those in Newport itself.

In looking about for a summer home Conanicut Park should not be overlooked. Full information will be given to those who desire it, and reference furnished to families who have spent the last season there and who can speak from experience in its praise. See advertisement elsewhere.

☞ The appointments of the nursery are incomplete without one bottle or more of the Milk of Magnesia, to be held in reserve in case of sudden attacks of colics and diarrhœas among its infantile occupants. No other form of Magnesia is safe in such visitations. Caswell, Hazard & Co., Agents. apr1-1m

Charles Lamb, Essayist, denounced all spirituous liquors as "Wet Damnation." Poor fellow; he knew whereof he spake, by sad experience, and if living, would apply the same to Alcoholic Excitants, advertised as Cure-alls. But there is one Tonic and Alterative in existence—the best the world has ever known—which contains no alcohol. It is DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS. apr5-4w

Diseased Digestion.

If chronic indigestion affected the stomach only it might be more easily borne; but it gives rise, inevitably, to many other diseases affecting the liver, the nerves, the bowels and the brain. Billiousness, nervous tremors, constipation, headache and terrible mental disturbances are among its usual accompaniments. In fact, every organ, every fibre of the frame sympathizes with the debilitated and diseased stomach. What is needed in such a case? Clearly an alterative and invigorant; and among medicines of that class Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is, beyond all comparison or estimate, the best. Mere purgatives only deprive the system of the little strength that disease has left it. Ballrants have the same effect. The whole interial organism has gone wrong and can only be put right and kept right by a medicine in which the tonic and stimulating element is predominate, but are qualified and modified by mild bilious aperients and blood purifying components. Now, the truth is (and the medical faculty as well as the public know the fact) that Hostetter's Bitters contain every ingredient requisite for the cure of dyspepsia and all the ailments of body and mind which it involves. This has been proved in so many thousands of instances that it seems almost idle to repeat the statement.

The vital tonic rallies exhausted nature, from whatever cause enfeebled, and permanently recruits the vigor of the nerves, the muscles and the brain. Its effect upon the brain is to give strength to the will and precision to the judgment, and to banish despondency and that infirmity of purpose which generally accompanies bodily weakness.

Important to Travelers.

☞ When you visit or leave the City of NEW YORK, save annoyance and expense of carriage hire and stop at the GRAND UNION HOTEL, opposite the GRAND CENTRAL DEPOT. It has over 350 elegantly furnished rooms and is fitted up at an expense of over $900,000. Elevator, steam and all modern improvements. European Plan. The RESTAURANTS, Lunch Counter and Wine Rooms are supplied with the best the markets can furnish. The cuisine is unsurpassed. Rooms for a single person, at $1.50 and $2 per day; rich suites for families proportionately low, so that visitors to the city and travelers can live more luxuriously, for less money at the GRAND UNION, than at any other first-class Hotel in the city. Stages and Cars pass the Hotel every minute for all parts of the City.
oc26-1aw-1m G. F. & W. D. GARRISON, Managers.

☞ The fatal diarrhœa, which carries off such numbers of the infant population of cities every summer and autumn, has its origin in the excessive secretion of acid in the stomach, stimulated by extreme atmospheric heat. Milk of Magnesia is the only remedy capable of neutralizing it and removing its morbid results. Caswell, Hazard & Co., Agents.
apr1-1m

☞ To Mothers.—As the season is approaching in which the least exposure of infants to atmospheric changes induces obstinate and debilitating diarrhœas, that the usual medicines are incapable of remedying, it behooves parents to be supplied with the Milk of Magnesia, which never fails to afford instant relief in such attacks. Caswell, Hazard & Co., Agents.

GENERAL NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Struggle for the Possession of the Quadruplex Telegraph Patent.

WASHINGTON, D. C. April 15.

Secretary Delano gave six hours today to a hearing on an appeal of a patent case. The real parties in interest in the case are the Western Union and Atlantic and Pacific telegraph companies, and the matter involved is the right to the duplex and quadruplex telegraph instruments. Senator Conkling appeared on the side of the Western Union, with General Butler as his chief opponent. Mr. Conkling maintains that the secretary has no right to hear an appeal and that the decision of the commissioner of patents is final.

General Shiras's Probable Successor.

General Amos Beckwith, who will probably be appointed commissary-general, was commissary of the combined armies in the Atlanta campaign and of Sherman's army on the march to the sea.

One of Butler's Best Victories.

General Butler today virtually gained the case in which he volunteered to defend the rights of two orphan girls in an ejectment suit brought by their rich uncle to deprive them of their homestead.

FROM NEW YORK.

Willingness to sell Cuba to the United States.

NEW YORK, April 15.

An Havana letter of the 10th inst., says Gen. Ampudia was brought back to Cuba by Valmaseda, and appointed governor of Puerto Principe. He has already shot two Cubans, and ordered sixteen more to be assassinated. He has been notified by the Cuban commander of that district that no more lives of Spaniards will be saved hereafter. Valmaseda's campaign does not seem to accomplish much, and old Spaniards say that another proposition of Sickles to purchase the island would be more favorably received now. Cartagena and several small towns and many estates near Cienfuegos have been burned recently. The celebrated estate of Monje, in the Cardonas district, has been burned, and the patriots have occupied Macagua, in the rich jurisdiction of Colon. An attack on Cardenas is daily expected, occasioning considerable excitement there.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mills Resuming Work.—Outrage by Strikers.

PROVIDENCE, April 15.

Two of the mills at Natick which have been idle on account of the strike, started up this morning. Last evening Nicholas Langley, while going round to inform the help that they could go to work, was severely assaulted by a mob and driven into his house. This morning the high sheriff of the county and several other officers are on the ground to protect the operatives who desire to work.

A Seaman Drowned.

John Wickes, mate of schooner Blackstone, was drowned last night. He is supposed to have fallen into the water while intoxicated. He was forty years of age.

Change of Time in a New Bedford Mill.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., April 15.

Potomask mill will begin next week to run more hours afternoons so as to close at one o'clock Saturdays. This is what the weavers asked for last week.

General Notes from Lowell.—The Corporations Said to be Averse to Locking Out.

LOWELL, Mass., April 15.

The report that there had been strikes by the ring spinners, fly spinners, or any other class of operatives except mule spinners, in this city, is entirely incorrect.

The truth is, the corporations are averse to locking out further than the necessary suspension of machinery compels them to do. Their reason for turning away the relatives of the mule spinners, in a few instances, are that somebody must leave when a third of their works stand idle, and that it is fairer to turn off those affiliated with the strikers than those foreign to them.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

ADJOURNED SESSION AT PROVIDENCE.

Senate.

THURSDAY, April 15.

The senate met at 11 o'clock, lieut. gov. Van Zandt in the chair.

The lieut. governor said that as acting governor he had a matter to present to the senate. He then read the second and third sections of the act of Congress of 1871, relative to the manner of appointing commissioners of the centennial, and a communication from Hon. Samuel Powel resigning his appointment as commissioner alternate. The lieutenant governor said he had with regret, been compelled to accept this resignation, and recognizing the fact that in the appointment of Mr. Powel his residence in Newport was considered, he had tendered the appointment to the Hon. George H. Norman of Newport. But that gentleman's private business was such that he could not accept under these circumstances, and realizing the fact that most of the industries of the state centered in Providence, and upon recommendation of prominent business men of the state, he had tendered the appointment to Royal C. Taft, Esq., of Providence, who has signified his willingness to accept. Royal C. Taft was therefore nominated as commissioner alternate to represent Rhode Island at the centennial to be held at Philadelphia next year; and his nomination will go before the President of the United States for confirmation.

A joint resolution directing the board of state charities and corrections to prepare plans for the establishment of an industrial school at the state farm was indefinitely postponed.

The house sent up an act amending chapter 115, of the statutes, "of milk," fixing penalties for selling skimmed or adulterated milk, and for violations of the provisions relative to selling milk. Read and referred to the committee on the judiciary.

Mr. Cross from the committee on engrossed acts reported as truly and rightly engrossed, the following, which were passed in concurrence as so engrossed, viz: Acts incorporating Seconnet Lodge No. 30, I. O. O. F. of Little Compton; Washington Lodge, No. 4, Knights of Pythias, Church of Christ in Manton; R. I. State Society for the Protection of Game and Fish; and act establishing a board of commissioners of sinking fund.

The majority and minority reports of the special committee on the marshal-constable conflict were read by the clerk.

The militia bill, and sundry other matters from the senate, were at this time taken up by consent, and referred to the proper committees.

Act amending chapter 115, "of milk." Passed to be engrossed.

A resolution authorizing the governor to continue John Pengelly of Newport, at the Perkins Institute for the Blind in Boston. Adopted in concurrence.

The senate adjourned to Friday morning at eleven o'clock.

House of Representatives.

The house met as usual, Speaker Freeman in the chair.

The act for the "restraint and care of the insane," which was being considered at the adjournment yesterday, and on which a vote was taken, no quorum voting, was taken up. The bill was adopted by a vote of 39 to 22.

Resolution to continue John Pengelly of Newport, at the Perkins Institution for the Blind, at the expense of the state. Adopted.

The speaker announced the question before the house to be in concurrence with the majority report of the special committee on the conflict of authority, and the passage of the resolution passed by the senate as follows:

Resolved, That his excellency the governor be requested to cause to be prepared and transmitted to the President of the United States a statement of the facts relating to the interference by the United States marshal for the district of Rhode Island with the state constable, while in the discharge of his duty, in the city of Providence, on the 23d day of February, 1875.

A motion to indefinitely postpone was voted down.

Mr. Miner moved to continue the whole subject to the May session.

Mr. Daniels proceeded with his argument against the report.

THE FLOOD.—In 1872 Mr. George Smith, of England, discovered fragments of the Chaldean account of the flood. He has since exhumed from the ruins of Nineveh most of the lacking portions. The Assyrian record agrees substantially with that found in the Bible, though differing on minor points. It says that the flood was a divine punishment of man's wickedness, and extended over the whole world; it speaks of an ark, pitched within and without, of the entrance of a holy man with his family and animals, the sending out of a dove and a raven, the landing on a mountain, etc.

A CURIOUS PAIR OF JAWS.

HOW THEY MAKE TACKS BY MACHINERY.—THREE THOUSAND BRADS A MINUTE.

Don't you think it must be a curious pair of jaws that can bite off a chunk of cold iron as easily as you can bite a stick of candy? You can hardly believe it? Wait till I tell you. One of the most interesting places I ever visited was a room filled with these monsters with the sharp steel jaws, called nail-machines. In the first place, the noise made by several of these machines in one room is absolutely fearful. I wanted to stuff my ears with cotton; but I thought that would not be very civil to my guide, and after a little while I got used to it, and soon found myself so much interested that I really forgot the noise. Some machines nip off the tacks so fast that a stream of finished tacks runs down a tin tube into a reservoir—thousands in a minute. Listen to the ticking of the clock, and reflect that at least twenty tacks are snapped off. But I must tell you how they do it. First, the iron bar, as it comes from the iron-works, is put between immense rollers, which flatten it out as nicely as a cook can roll out pie-crust with a rolling-pin. The bar of iron is thus made into a sheet, just thick enough for the nails they want to make. It goes next to the slitting-machine, which makes no more fuss about slitting it into the proper width for nails than your scissors make about cutting paper. It is cut a little longer than the nail is to be, because the heads are to be made. When the strips of iron are all ready, a man takes one, and slips the end into the steel jaws I told you of. These jaws are worked by steam-power, and instantly they bite off a nail, while a furious little hammer springs out suddenly, and with one blow on the end of the bit of iron flattens it, and thus makes a head. If you want to know what a blow it must be, take a piece of iron and try to pound a head on it yourself. The instant the head is made, the jaws open, and the nail drops out finished. Of course it is done much quicker than I have been telling you, for a machine can make brads (which I needn't tell the boys are small nails without heads) at the rate of three thousand a minute. It is said that "figures won't lie," and I hope they won't but I must admit that it is hard to believe that story.

After the tacks come out of the machine, they are "blued," as it is called. It is done by heating them in an oven or an iron plate. Then they are sent to the packing-room, where one girl can weigh and put into papers two thousand papers of tacks in a day. There's another tough story, but my guide assured me it was true. How many kind of nails can you name? You will probably be surprised to hear that two hundred kinds of nails are made in one factory, beginning with spikes which weigh nearly half a pound each, and ending with the tiniest kind of tacks, not a quarter of an inch long.—[Harper's Bazar.

Kidney Complaint.

Probably there is no complaint that afflicts the human system, which is so little understood at the present time, as some of the varied forms of Kidney Complaints.

There is no disease which causes such acute pain or is more alarming in its results than when the kidneys fail to secrete from the blood the uric acid and other poisonous substances, which the blood accumulates in its circulation through the system.

If from any cause the kidneys fail to perform the functions devolving upon them, the cumulations are taken up by the absorbents and the whole system thrown into a state of disease, causing great pain and suffering, and very often immediate death. Hence the importance of keeping the kidneys and blood in a healthy condition, through which all the impurities of the body must pass.

PAIN IN THE BACK.

There is no remedy known to medical science which has proved itself more valuable in cases of Kidney Complaints than VEGETINE. It acts directly upon the secretions, cleanses and purifies the blood, and restores the whole system to healthy action.

The following extraordinary cures of great sufferers who had been given up by the best physicians as hopeless cases, will speak for themselves and should challenge the most profound attention of the medical faculty, as well as of those who are suffering from Kidney Complaint.

THE BEST MEDICINE.

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 22, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir—I am seventy-one years of age; have suffered many years with Kidney Complaint, weakness in my back and stomach. I was induced by friends to try your VEGETINE, and I think it the best medicine for weakness of the Kidneys I ever used. I have tried many remedies for this complaint, and never found so much relief as from the VEGETINE. It strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Many of my acquaintances have taken it, and I believe it to be good for all the complaints for which it is recommended. Yours truly,

JOSIAH H. SHERMAN.

Pronounced Incurable.

BOSTON, May 30, 1871.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.: Dear Sir—I have been badly afflicted with Kidney Complaint for ten years; have suffered great pain in my back, hips and side, with great difficulty in passing urine, which was often, and in very small quantities, frequently accompanied with blood and excruciating pain.

I have faithfully tried most of the proper remedies recommended for my complaint; I have been under the treatment of some of the most skillful physicians in Boston, all of whom pronounced my case incurable. This was my condition when I was advised by a friend to try the VEGETINE, and I could see the good effects from the first dose I took, and from that moment I kept on improving until I was entirely cured, taking in all, I should think, about six bottles.

It is indeed a valuable medicine and if I should be afflicted again in the same way, I would give a dollar a dose, if I could not get it without.

Respectfully, J. M. GILE.

581 Third Street, South Boston.

NEARLY BLIND.

H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—In expressing my thanks to you for benefits derived from the use of VEGETINE, and to benefit others, I will state:—

When eight or nine years old I was afflicted with Scrofula, which made its appearance in my eyes, face and head, and I was very nearly blind for two years. All kinds of operations were performed on my eyes, and all to no good result. Finally the disease principally settled in my body, limbs and feet, and at times in an aggravated way.

Last Summer I was, from some cause, weak in my spine and kidneys, and it was at times very hard to retain the urine. Seeing your advertisement in the Commercial, I bought a bottle of VEGETINE, and commenced using according to directions. In two or three days I obtained great relief. After using four or five bottles I noticed it had a wonderful effect on the rough, scaly blotches on my body and legs. I still used VEGETINE and the humorous sores one after another disappeared until they were all gone, and I attribute the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing else.

If I am ever affected with anything of the kind again I shall try VEGETINE as the only reliable remedy. Once more accept my thanks, and believe me to be, Very respectfully, AUSTIN FARROTT.

Dec. 1, 1872. No. 35 Gano St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, etc., are always unpleasant, and at times they become the most distressing and dangerous diseases that can affect the human system. Most diseases of the Kidneys arise from impurities in the blood, causing humors which settle on these parts. VEGETINE excels any known remedy in the whole world for cleansing and purifying the blood, thereby causing a healthy action to all the organs of the body.

Vegetine is Sold by all Druggists.

Mr. Arnold's Card.

DR. CARPENTER,—Dear sir: your treatment for chronic catarrh in my case has been successful, although the complaint was of some years standing and had begun to impair my hearing. I think I am perfectly cured and recommend similar sufferers to apply to you. I reside in Jamestown.

F. A. ARNOLD.

NEWPORT, R. I., April 1st, 1875.

Testimony of Captain Hammond of Newport.

W. H. CARPENTER, M. D.,—DEAR SIR:—Allow me to thank you, through the NEWS and JOURNAL, for the great benefits conferred upon me by your treatment for Chronic Catarrh. Five weeks ago, when I consulted you, I was prostrated and nearly worn out with that terrible disease. Under your treatment I began to improve at once, and in two weeks was able to resume my employment, and have continued to improve up to this time. Yours Sincerely,

J. F. HAMMOND, No. 5 Brinley street,

Newport, March 18, 1875.

STATEMENT OF MR. RICHARD STAFFORD.

NEWPORT, Jan. 7, 1875.

W. H. CARPENTER, M. D.—Dear Sir:—Having received great benefit from your treatment of my case of deafness and discharges from my ears, I beg to offer you my sincere and heartfelt thanks, hoping at the same time this correspondence may be of use to you professionally. To the public I would say, (if you decide to put this in print,) that as the result of Scarlet Fever, I was troubled for the whole of twenty years with a filthy, disgusting discharge from both ears, which made me grow deafer and deafer, and caused a polypus to grow in one ear, and I received no relief until I applied to Dr. C., for a remedy. I at once placed myself under his care, and through his skillful treatment I have completely recovered from the unpleasant and deplorable condition I was in. My faith in Dr. C's skill is unbounded as I considered my case about incurable before applying to him.

RICHARD STAFFORD, No. 8 Cross street.

CERTIFICATE OF MR. JOHN CASWELL.

NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 12, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF NEWS:—I wish to recommend Dr. Carpenter's treatment to such of the community as have Scrofula. I inherited it, and it has always run in my blood, and last Fall it became terrible, injuring my health, and attacking my head and face particularly and so disfigured me that a neighbor that met me did not know me until I spoke to him. I applied to Dr. Carpenter, at the Perry House, and his medicines have met with gratifying success. My health is now good, have very little trouble with the humor, face looks natural, and I hope with a little more treatment, to eradicate the poisonous humor from my system entirely. I reside in Middletown.

JOHN CASWELL.

Catarrh and Polypus.

Home Testimony.

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 6th, 1874.

This is to proclaim what Dr. Carpenter has done for me. I suffered from Catarrh 40 years, and the last 10 years my nasal passages were filled with Polypus. I employed physicians from time to time, and two years ago, went to Boston, and was doctored there three months, and left off worse than I began, and I was almost discouraged. But I felt that I must do something, for I was obliged to keep my mouth open and my health was becoming impaired. So I went to Fall River last Spring, and placed myself under the care of Dr. Carpenter. His treatment proved highly satisfactory. He removed and cured the Polypus, I can breathe naturally, the Catarrh troubles me very little and altogether I am comfortable and as well as a man 60 years of age, can expect to be, and I hope this testimony may be the means of securing relief to other sufferers. I reside in Middletown.

ASA PECKHAM.

Permanent Cures of Scrofulous Catarrh.

Testimony of a Citizen of Newport.

My son and daughter were sufferers from Scrofulous Catarrh from birth, and with discharges, swellings upon their necks; and an utter inability to breathe through the nose, they were uncomfortable enough, when we placed them under the care of Dr. Carpenter in 1865. His remedies cured them in a few months and they remain well to this day. I publish this with the hope it may be the means of securing relief to others.

PERRY HOUSE, Newport, Nov. 2d, 1874. } S. D. BREWSTER.

A CARD FROM

Mr. John Beattie Jr.

(From Fall River News.)

FALL RIVER, Jan. 22, 1874.

W. H. CARPENTER, M. D.,—My Dear Sir:—Allow me thus publicly to express my gratitude for the great benefit conferred upon me by your treatment. I was afflicted for years with Catarrh which had become a constant torment to me, the irritation and inflammation having increased until ulceration was the consequence. Your treatment has been attended with the happiest results, I am now comfortable, my head feels well, and I believe myself cured of that terrible disease.

JOHN BEATTIE, JR.

Mr. Beattie is of the well-known Firm of Wm. & J. Beattie, Jr., Granite Dealers and Contractors, 2 Quarry street.

A CARD FROM WALTER SCOTT, Esq.,

EDITOR OF BORDER CITY HERALD, OF FALL RIVER.

I have known Dr. Carpenter since he commenced practice in this city, and I am satisfied that he is a skillful physician and has been successful in the treatment of a great majority of the cases in which he has been consulted. Of my own personal knowledge, I have reason to testify that quite a number of the individuals cured were nearly hopeless in their condition; some about blind, others deaf, and others laboring under Bronchial and Catarrhal affections, and I have seen the same persons restored under his treatment to their normal state of health. I therefore, knowing these things, without hesitation recommend him to persons suffering from the maladies he has made his special study for years.

WALTER SCOTT.

Mr. A. D. White's Card.

(From Fall River News.)

FALL RIVER, May 23, 1874.

To my Friends and the Public:

It affords me great satisfaction to be able to testify to the success of Dr. Carpenter in the treatment of my Ears, which were a source of trouble and annoyance to me more than twenty years. Dr. C.'s treatment restored them, and they have been well several months. I have great confidence in Dr. Carpenter's skill and success in practice, and do not hesitate to recommend him.

A. D. WHITE, Firm of Dennis White & Son, Troy Building, Pleasant St.

Catarrh and Blindness.

(From Fall River News.)

Testimony of Mrs. J. Clomb, of Fall River.

I was diseased with an aggravated form of Catarrh ten years, and in consequence my eyes became affected in December last, and grew worse until I could not go about without being led. Was under the care of several doctors and at the Boston Infirmary, but got no help until I consulted Dr. Carpenter at the Mount Hope House, April 2d. Under his treatment I began to improve immediately, and now I consider myself cured. I think everyone should know there is a physician in Fall River who can cure such diseases. As I am not very well known in this city, I am at liberty to refer to W. Scott, Esq., No. 1 Ferry street, who saw me when I was in a state of blindness and when I was cured.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
